

New Officers of Women Of Moose Installed

The Women of the Moose held their public installation at the Moose Club rooms on Carson street June 30th at 8:00 p.m. The installing team, gowned in blue formals, and carrying wands encircled with gold rings, was from Long Beach and under the supervision of Mrs. Vertie Grimm, installing chairman of the evening.

Following officers were installed: Senior Regent, Geneva Clawson; Junior Regent, Wilverta Herman; Chaplain, Martha Jones; Recorder, Alice Swanson; Treasurer, Edna Sanders; Guide, Marie Koshak; Assistant Guide, Lucille Krasch; Musician, Lucille Meyers; Argus, Gordie White; and Sentinel, Martha Evans.

The installing officers were: Senior Regent, Elsie Smith; Guide, Daisy Hutchinson; Chaplain, James Johnson; and Musician, Edith Gunier, of Long Beach. The incoming Senior Regent was lovely in a gown of white chantilly lace. The Chapter presented the Senior Regent with a lovely string of pearls as a token of their esteem.

Guests of the Order were Graduate Grand Regent, Bessie Lovett, of Long Beach and Governor of the Local Order of the Moose, George Powell. After a presentation to members of the official family of a gift by the Senior Regent, cake and coffee was served, and dancing followed.
